

CPD provision for secondary teachers

The 'Beyond Survival' series

Strategies for Handling Pressure

Meetings that Work

Breaking through to Real Communication

Handling Angry Complainers

These and other topics can be tailored to suit the needs of your staff and may be delivered as a presentation or as interactive workshops. Follow-up coaching can be included to ensure that insights are translated into real change.

From the SSTA 2004:

The Association is delighted to continue our partnership with Alison Clark in our delivery of training. Her knowledge of the methods of training delivery has enabled Alison to relate well to participants and to be effective in meeting the objectives in training.

Whether on a "one-to-one" coaching basis or in seminars, "Words in Action" is to be thoroughly recommended.

David Eaglesham
General Secretary
Scottish Secondary Teachers' Association

'... interesting and helpful Inservice training.... It was refreshing to have such a relevant session.' St Margaret's Aberdeen

'..sincere thanks for your valuable contribution at the recent Headteachers' Annual meeting in Stirling. ...the meeting was highly successful.' SSTA

..gained lots of insight and ideas to put into practice. We haven't had many courses in which gales of laughter featured quite so much! SCIS